POWERFUL FIGHTER OF UNCLE SAM

Big Monster of the Sea Placed in Commission At Norfolk Navy Yard

FIGHTING EQUIPMENT

Consists of Largest Guns Ever Placed on a Warship—Ship and Armament Cost Nearly Ten Millions—Makes Record Speed.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Newport News, Va., March 12.—All ready for "fight or frolic," the giant superdreadnaught Texas, most powerful battleship afloat in the world, today left the yards of her builders here, the Newport News Shipbuilding company, for the Norfolk navy yard, distant only a few miles, there to be turned over to Rear Admiral Usher, commandant of the Norfolk station. The vessel's officers and crew had been assembled, so that she was ready to be placed officially in commission immediately after being turned over by the builders to the authorized government representative. The dreadnaught was launched here almost two years ago. Miss Claudia Lyon, daughter of Col. Cecil A. Lyon of Texas, doing the honors of the occasion with the traditional bottle of champagne.

This monster of the sea carries as its principal fighting equipment a battery of ten 14-inch guns, being the first warship in the world to be fitted out with guns of such large calibre; and in addition has in its main battery twenty-one 5-inch guns. Since the 14-inch guns were placed on the Texas, a Japanese battleship has been equipped with similar sized ones, although 13.5-inch guns are the largest which have yet been placed on any British dreadnaught. The big guns on the Texas are arranged in five turrets all on a central line from stem to stern, and are so placed that they can be fired over each other.

In length the fighter is 573 feet with a beam 95 feet 2 1/2 inches, so that in passing through the Panama canal locks she would have almost 15 feet to spare. Although her designed speed was 21 knots in her trials off the Main coast last October, she did her fastest mile at rate of 22.8 knots. She has a displacement of 27,000 tons, a horsepower of 35,000 and draws 28 feet 6 inches. Her armor belt is 11 inches thick. Twin screw vertical, triple expansion engines send the steel plated terror sizzling through the seas. The contract price of the vessel for hull and machinery was $5,830,000, but with armament added the cost was swelled several millions.

A sister ship, the New York, which also is rapidly approaching completion, is now in course of construction at the New York navy yard.

VANDERBILT'S MILLIONS LEFT TO HIS WIDOW

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, March 12.—The will of George W. Vanderbilt, who died on Friday, in Washington, will be filed for probate late today. A statement covering the important points in the document is to be made by the family solicitors when the will is filed. The estate, it is said, is valued at about $50,000,000.

It is understood that the document is in the handwriting of the testator and that it is remarkable for its brevity, taking into consideration the vast wealth bequeathed. Just a few lines, it is said, will cover the actually important parts of the document and a few words tell the story of the instrument.

To Mrs. Vanderbilt, widow of Mr. George W. Vanderbilt, is said to have been left the greater share of the millions.

MISSIONARIES MAY BE KILLED; TOWN IS BURNED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, March 12.—A despatch to the Central News from Shanghai, says that two English women, attached to the station of the China inland mission at Lao Ho Kow, in the province of Hu Peh, have been missing since that town was sacked and burned by brigands yesterday. The two women are Miss E. Black and Miss J. Black.

The China inland mission is a British missionary society with headquarters in London. It was represented in Lao Ho Kow by five persons. The brigands when they sacked the city killed Dr. T. F. Frowland, a Norwegian missionary, and wounded several others.

Altogether there are 17 persons attached to protestant missions in the city.

Your Chance Is Good

One may enter the Advocate Booklovers' Contest at the present time without any disadvantage. With the help of the catalogue and the assistance that friends will gladly give, anybody—child or grown-up can in short order solve the few pictures up to date, and then be ready for each day's picture.

Talk to your neighbors, your friends and your associates. They will tell you of the fun they are having finding the answers to the pictures.

The public is surely aroused in this big contest of wits, each day's issue testifying to greater interest than shown the preceding day.

Before filling out their coupons many are not only studying the catalogue, but are discussing the pictures with friends and are looking at "probable answers" shown in down town windows. Several have reported that they haven't filled a single coupon yet but are filing them away intending to put in an evening or two soon on the pictures. Others who are interested are meeting in little groups studying and talking over the books and pictures together and exchanging ideas.

The fact that the contest is "town talk" is responsible for its tremendous growth and it is the talk of the town because it is the biggest proposition ever inaugurated by a Newark newspaper.

Nearly $4,000 worth of prizes will be given away without a string to one of them. They are all free and you don't have to pay a fee to get started in the contest, all that is needed being the coupons and a catalogue. The Advocate has both. Suppose you are only starting today—others, many of them, are doing the same thing. Don't imagine for a minute that you'll have any trouble catching up. Join the big crowd, start tonight, you have just as good a chance to win one of those 136 splendid prizes as anybody.

Body of Laborer In Morgue Is Identified As A Former Prosperous Chicago Attorney

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, March 12.—While on his way to Milwaukee on a lake steamer with his bridge of but a few weeks Horace Greely Clarke, a prosperous Chicago lawyer and board of trade operator, mysteriously disappeared on June 28, 1902. A country wide search for him was unsuccessful and at last it was decided he had fallen from the steamer and had been drowned.

Yesterday the body of a railroad section laborer in a morgue at Cudahy, Wis., was identified as that of Horace Greely Clarke. Clarke's sister, a Mrs. Carson of Iowa City, made the identification. An accidental overdose of a drug caused the man's death, physicians say.

Mrs. Carson could learn but little about her brother's strange disappearance. Seemingly he had lost his mind. He had been in various parts of Wisconsin for years and was known at Cudahy as "Harry Harrie." For years the man had been a drug user and was found dead in bed at a rooming house a week ago.

However nothing could be learned regarding his disappearance from the lake steamer 12 years ago. At the time of his disappearance, Clarke was believed to have left the boat when it docked at Racine, Wis. but after a search of weeks he was reported dead. "Harry Harrie's" statements to friends that he had a sister living in Iowa City led to the identification of his body yesterday.

Clarke's bride was Miss Knoblock of South Bend, Ind.

SKELETON

DISCOVERED IN GERMAN EAST AFRICA HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF YEARS OLD.

Skull Is Perfect Also Entire Framework of the Body, Which Makes It Valuable Fossil.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Berlin, March 12.—A valuable anthropological discovery in the northern part of German East Africa is reported in the Lokal Anzeiger, by Dr. Hans Reick, of the geological and palaeontological institute of Berlin University. It is a fossil human skeleton in a magnificent state of preservation.

This is held to prove that "many tens, nay hundreds of thousands of years ago a highly developed race of men inhabited the African continent."

The remains seem to be of a completeness very unusual in such cases. Not only is the skull perfect with all the teeth, but also the entire framework of the body—the thorax, shoulder, pelvis and extremities.

The skeleton is ascribed to the diluvial epoch, but anything like a precise estimation of its age will only be possible after a thorough examination of the records of extinct animals.

HALF A MILLION ANONYMOUS GIFT TO A CATHEDRAL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, March 12.—An anonymous gift of $500,000 toward the construction of the great national cathedral of the Protestant Episcopal church on Mt. St. Albans, in the suburbs of Washington, was announced today. The structure when completed will rank among the famous temples of the world. The bequest was made through the New York chapter of the national cathedral association.

It's a good thing we don't always know what other people think of us, but on the other hand, we probably wouldn't believe it, anyhow.

QUARANTINE

ISSUED AGAINST PLANT DISEASE WILL STOP THE IMPORTATION OF POTATOES.

And United States Must Hereafter Raise Enough for Home Consumption Says Department.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, March 12.—Warning that the United States hereafter must produce enough potatoes to supply the home consumption, on account of the most sources of foreign imports being closed by a plant disease quarantine, was issued by the department of agriculture today. In a statement it is pointed out that Germany has solved the problem of supplying its own needs for this important foodstuff at a reasonable price regardless of annual variations in yield and that the United States might well look to that country in its effort to better its potato industry.

"With our great resources," says the department, "it should be entirely unnecessary for us to import potatoes, but unless the production is increased and maintained, years of shortage may recur and a serious condition arise."

The potato in Germany, it is stated, occupies a more important place than in the United States.

TURK AVIATORS FALL.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Jaffa, Palestine, March 12.—Two Turkish army aviators, Nuri Bey and Ismail Bey fell into the sea today while flying to the south of this port. Their aeroplane had broken down and they made a rapid glide to the water, where they were able to disentangle themselves from the machine and swim ashore. Both were in a state of extreme exhaustion when they reached the beach and were taken to a hospital where Nuri Bey died later in the day.

MISUSE OF MAILS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Council Bluffs, Iowa, March 12.—The federal grand jury last night returned an indictment against Harry H. Wooding, proprietor of a Council Bluffs mail order house charging the misuse of the mails by circulating misleading advertisements.

A PRISON TERM OF 6 MONTHS

Given Miss Richardson for Attempting to Destroy the Famous "Rokeby Venus"

COLLOQUY WITH COURT

Occurs Before Sentence is Pronounced—The Prisoner Has Been On a Hunger Strike Since Her Arrest, and is Looking Very Ill.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, March 12.—Miss May Richardson, the militant suffragette, who on Tuesday hacked Valasquez's "Rokeby Venus" in the National gallery, was today sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

The case against Miss Richardson was disposed of in record time. She was arrested on March 10, taken to Bow street police court and committed for trial by the magistrate on the same day; the grand jury yesterday returned a true bill against her, and today she was tried and convicted by a jury.

The public prosecutor in addressing the jury on behalf of the government said one might well doubt whether the prisoner was in her right senses. There was however, no medical examination to show that she was a person not responsible for her actions.

Miss Richardson has been on a "hunger strike" since her arrest. In replying to the charge today she said that her act was premeditated and she pleaded guilty.

Addressing Judge Robert Wallace, who presided over the court, Miss Richardson said:

"I am an art student, but I care more for justice than for art. I firmly believe that when the nation has shut its eyes to justice and has allowed women who are fighting for justice to be maltreated and tortured, such an action as mine should be understandable."

"The slow and premeditated murder of Emmeline Pankhurst is the ultimatum which has made necessary the recent acts of her followers. The nation seems to be dead or asleep, for we women have knocked vainly at the doors of ministers, bishops and archbishops and even of the king himself."

"I know that you will sentence me. I can stand only a few months' torture but my fate makes little difference. I am really a grateful and happy woman because I have been able to live in a century in which Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst lived and because in a slight measure, I have tried to carry out what I believe in."

As Judge Wallace was about to pass sentence, the following colloquy occurred:

The Judge—"If the picture had been destroyed no money could have replaced it."

Miss Richardson—"Do you realize that no money can replace Emmeline Pankhurst? She is being slowly killed."

The Judge—"You have pleaded guilty and have gloried in your crime."

Miss Richardson—"I don't say that I think it is a shame. I had to consider it my duty to do it."

The Judge—"It is my duty to pass sentence of six months' imprisonment. I recognize that this sentence is totally inadequate, but it is the maximum sentence for damaging works of art. If the offense had been window breaking, I could have given the prisoner eighteen months' imprisonment."

Miss Richardson looked ill and it was suggested in some quarters that the precarious state of her health had been the reason for the taking of the unusual course of hurrying the trial.

The charge against the prisoner was "malicious damage to a picture."

Militant Suffragettes Burn Church Building

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Glasgow, Scotland, March 12.—Militant suffragettes today burned to the ground a large unoccupied mansion at St. Andrew, belonging to the Free Church of Scotland. A message was left in the vicinity stating: "This is in revenge for the brutal arrest of Mrs. Pankhurst."

CLEVELAND'S BIRTH TO BE CELEBRATED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Caldwell, N. J., March 12.—Exercises in commemoration of the birthday of Grover Cleveland will be held under the auspices of the Grover Cleveland Birthplace and Memorial association here on March 15. A part of the ceremony will be the dedication of a permanent memorial of the house in which Cleveland was born.

Missouri Athletic Club, in the Burning of Which Many Well-Known Men Lost Their Lives

The Missouri Athletic Club building in St. Louis burned with many prominent men, who lost their lives without a chance of escape. The club had a membership of 1,500, and it was one of the best known organizations of the west. The sleeping rooms contained many persons who live there regularly and some who had come in for the night. Shortly after the fire started the roof fell in carrying all through the wreckage. Later the walls caved, and then it was seen there was little chance of getting any out alive. There were many thrilling rescues from the windows and some persons jumped. Two men lost their lives by leaping from the sixth floor.

YOUNG GIRL SHOOTS SELF AND MAY DIE

Ruth Meyer, aged about 17 years, a daughter of Mrs. C. G. Schott, of 22 North Williams street, shot herself at the home Thursday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock.

Her condition is said to be critical. Three physicians were summoned as quickly as possible and are doing everything possible to save the girl's life.

Miss Meyer is a sister of Karl Meyer, telegraph operator, who was found dead in a lonely telegraph station in Wisconsin more than a year ago. His death was never satisfactorily explained.

According to an unconfirmed report, Miss Meyer shot herself with a revolver owned by this brother. Whether it was with suicidal intent could not be learned.

"I do not know why she did it," said a sister when asked if the girl had any reason for wishing to take her own life. It is probable that brooding over her brother's death may have caused her to become melancholy.

BURGLARS ARE BOUND OVER TO COMMON PLEAS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, March 12.—The six men caught in a raid by police on Tuesday and charged with wholesale burglaries in this city, Newark, Canton, Marysville and Lancaster pleaded guilty in police court today to the specific charges relating to Columbus burglaries.

The six men who were sent to jail in default of $1000 bond were: David Marcellotti, Carl Wolf, Harlan Taylor, Claude Goldner, Fred Mehrman and Harry Taylor.

Mrs. Katherine Marcellotti, mother of David, and his wife Katherine, were held as witnesses under bonds of $300 each.

LOWER RATES ARE FIXED BY COMMISSION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, March 12.—Failure of railroads and shippers to agree on freight rates between Chicago, Mississippi river and Missouri river points, on the one hand and Denver and Colorado common points on the other, induced the interstate commerce commission to fix commodity rates today by a definite order. The commission says that it is probable no final solution can be made with a general readjustment of the rates throughout this territory, but "as affording a present remedy" for the difficulties in which the Colorado jobbers and other large shippers have found themselves the commission has established rates on several hundred commodities materially lower than existing rates. The new lower rates become effective May 1.

REGIMENT BEING SENT TO BORDER

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, March 12.—Two more regiments of United States troops were moving to join the Mexican border patrol today. Two battalions of the Ninth Infantry at Fort Thomas and Fort Logan H. Roots, Ark., and the Seventeenth Infantry at Fort McPherson, Georgia, were loading baggage trains and assembling field equipment to move to Laredo and Eagle Pass to become part of a military force in the state of Texas larger by 3,000 men than the one General Shafter delivered into Cuba.

The border patrol is being increased in numbers at the request of Senator Sheppard and Representative Garner of Texas, who pointed out to Secretary Garrison that the Vergara incident had caused a great deal of uneasiness.

At the White House and at the war department it was stated that such was the only significance of the troop movement. Brig. General Bliss will assign the new coming regiments to locations.

IS CHARGED WITH MURDER OF WOMAN AT CLEVELAND, O

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, March 12.—Mrs. Anna Podogil, 30, was killed here today, being cut to pieces in her home while tied to her bed. Frank Stika, 30, has been arrested charged with murder. Police say he has made a confession. The woman was rescued from the torture chamber where the crime was committed just before noon. She was alive but so badly injured that she died shortly after being rushed to a hospital. The rescue was made by Patrolman Purck, who heard screams coming from the house.

The woman's body gave evidence of having been cut and slashed with a knife in a most brutal manner. She had been held a prisoner and tortured since early last evening, police say. Neighbors heard screams coming from the house at sundown yesterday. The screams were repeated about midnight and throughout the morning until the arrival of the officers near noon. Purck found the door of the house locked when he tried to investigate the woman's cries. He burst it open and found Mrs. Podogil unconscious from more than a score of wounds. Stika had slept in a bed a few feet away while the victim of the tragedy lay screaming and bleeding on the floor, police say.

ROBBERS KILL TRAINMAN AND MAKE ESCAPE

San Jose, Cal., March 12.—Robbers attempted to board a fast Southern Pacific train from San Francisco to Los Angeles here last night shot and killed Michael Corrine, a railroad policeman who interfered and then fled. The train was made up principally of sleeping cars and carried many tourists.

SEARCHING FOR BODIES OF VICTIMS

In Ruins of Athletic Club Fire Continues Day and Night

HAVE RECOVERED 15

Believed From 20 to 30 More Are Still Buried Under the Wreckage of the Seven Story Building—Have Identified Ten.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
St. Louis, March 12.—Three more bodies were found early today in the ruins of the Missouri Athletic club which early Monday morning was destroyed by fire. One of the bodies was identified as that of Thomas J. Wright, auditor of the William J. Lemp Brewing company of this city. Fifteen bodies now have been recovered. From 20 to 30 more are supposed to be buried under the wreckage of the seven story club house and bank building.

A short distance from Wright's body the leg of another human body was found, the remainder of which had been burned to a shred. Near this body the wreckers picked up a pair of ladies' silk stockings.

The finding of a pair of trousers containing initials bearing the name of Charles B. Baker of Cincinnati, gave rise to the belief that he was among those who perished in the fire. Baker was a non-resident member of the club but his presence in the building was not known to the officers who survived. His name was not included among the missing, injured or dead.

A pocketbook found in the trousers contained a card of the Business Men's Club of Cincinnati, a membership card bearing Baker's name in the Lafayette Hotel, lodge No. 143 of the Elks, and a check for $400 on the National Bank of Cincinnati. A force of men worked among the ruins all night hunting for bodies with search lights and digging away debris.

In the ruins were found a card and book bearing the name of B. Hehle, Little Wonder Malt Mills, Kansas City. It is now believed Mr. Hehle perished in the fire though his name had not previously appeared in the list of missing. Ten of the bodies recovered have been identified.

One of the bodies found today although so badly burned, was identified by means of a pair of spectacles under the body as that of Burt Crouch of St. Louis, sales manager of the Western Electric company.

BAKER ESCAPED FROM BUILDING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cincinnati, March 12.—Charles D. Baker, of this city, whose clothing, money and cards were found in some clothing recovered from the St. Louis fire, escaped from the burning building. This information was conveyed to Baker's relatives here on Tuesday in a long distance telephone message from Baker. According to the relatives he said he had been a guest at the Athletic Club on the night of the fire and had managed to escape but that he had lost his clothes and money. He asked that money be forwarded to him at a St. Louis hotel.

PUPILS SAVED BY FIRE DRILL; BUILDING BURNS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Baltimore, Md., March 12.—One thousand pupils of public school No. 20, at Eden and Preston streets were marched from the building in good order by their teachers today while fire, originating in the cellar, was making rapid progress through the structure. The building, which was of brick and old-fashioned construction was completely destroyed.

In the light from the building the first to receive the attention of the teachers were a number of crippled children. These were carried out in the arms of the teachers.

Though the pupils displayed rare courage while they were making their way out of the building, many of the girls collapsed when the street was reached. These were attended by teachers and several physicians who had hurried to the scene.

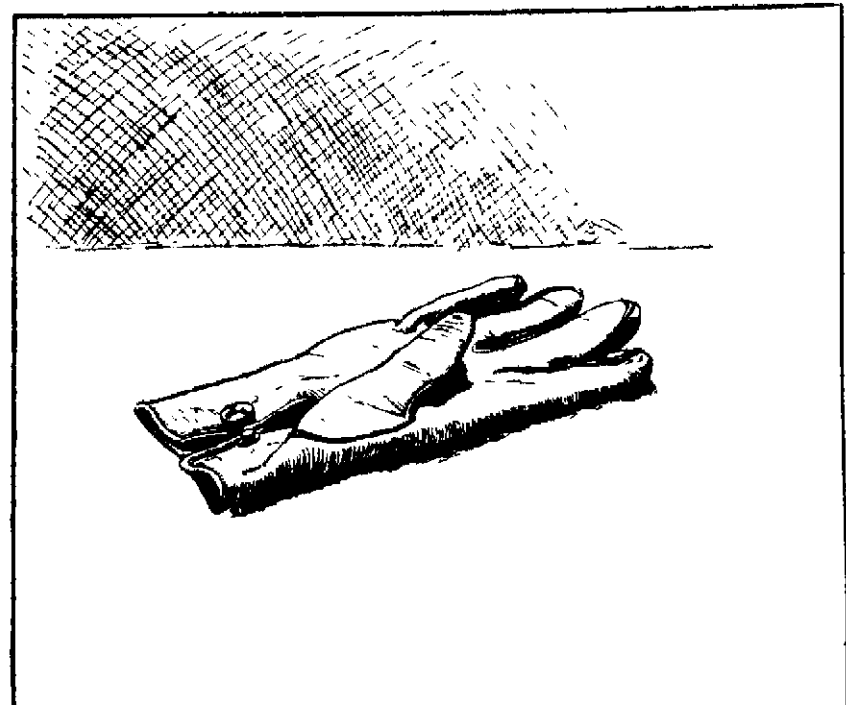

The report that the school building was on fire spread quickly through the district, and soon hundreds of anxious mothers without wraps and many of them hysterical, were on their way to the spot. When they arrived at the scene they were quickly reassured by the teachers that all had escaped.

Many a man marries a woman, expecting her not only to look up to him, but to put up for him.

MOON ECLIPSE SEEN BY MANY

For Two Hours the Orb of Night Was in Earth's Shadow—Little Scientific Value.

Everybody in Newark who glanced skyward from 9 until 11 last night witnessed the almost total eclipse of the moon, the shadow of the earth covering nine-tenths of the moon's diameter. The eclipse was visible in North and South America, western Europe and western Africa. The next partial eclipse of the moon like that of last night will be visible here March 22, 1932.

Astronomers at Ohio State university informed students that a view of the eclipse with the naked eye was better for observation purposes than the most powerful telescope.

A moon eclipse is of little scientific value.

Among the natives of western Africa, where the eclipse was visible, it is believed that a great dragon is eating up the moon. Pans and kettles are beaten in the hope of scaring the beast away. When the shadow passes away, the superstitious Africans retire, satisfied of the efficacy of their noise and magic.

"Where the Trail Divides."

Running a very close second to "Strongheart," Mr. Robert Edeson's greatest triumph in dramatics, "Where the Trail Divides" takes up the thread where the former left off, and as a result, makes a finer and stronger impression on the public mind, in the fact that it is a more finished product of the author's brain. C. S. Primrose heralds it as a special offering at the Auditorium Theater, on Tuesday night, March 11.

"Alaska."

A trip through the Arctic regions in motion pictures. These pictures are out of the ordinary, praised by the public and press everywhere and come highly recommended. It is a chance to travel the trails in the "Land of the Midnight Sun" with this noted character, to take this trip in reality in reality is this tip in reality it would cost hundreds of dollars, many months of time, trials and hardships.

"Alaska" Jack who lectures with the pictures is an old government scout, having been in service for over fifteen years in a country we hear very little and never hope to see. He is not an Arctic explorer but just a "sourdough," one of the men you read about in Jack London's books, with his queer dialect natural to those who have been ostracized from the society of whites as he has been for many years.

On Saturday afternoon only, children under the age of ten will be admitted free of charge providing they are accompanied by an adult. There will be three performances, given both Saturday and Sunday, 7:30, 8:30 and 9:30. In addition there will be two comedy reels, making a two hour show.

"Oscar and Adolph."

Oscar and Adolph are "on der way." If you hear a commotion on the morning of Monday you will remember that the date for the appearance of this famous pair of jesters at the Auditorium theater is at hand. And they do not come alone. With Oscar and Adolph follows Diana Dilliplopie, Mr. Skyscraper, famous by the metropolitan newspapers of America. And last but not least this small army of fun-makers, is only the van for a corps of babyfaced dance-mad Broadway girls. Oscar and Adolph's "bunch of dancing rosebuds" and "gorgeous garden of glorious girls" have been the talk of the critics at theater-gosses wherever this latest Broadway review has shown during the brief season. This production is spick and span new and the costumes are fresh from the workshops. Oscar and Adolph is announced for Monday evening, March 16th, on for one night only.

"Stop Thief."

Kleptomaniacs is the theme of Carlyle Moore's farce, "Stop Thief," one of the big shows which Cohen and Harris are offering their admirers this season and which is scheduled for performance at the Auditorium on Thursday, one night only, March 19th. A kleptomaniac is defined by Webster as a wealthy person of extraordinary absent-minded tendencies and morbid impulses. The mania usually demonstrates its presence by the victim of it being discovered in making a collection of valuable articles that do not belong to him. When a poor man is caught doing the same thing he is pronounced as an ordinary thief. Now in the play "Stop Thief," there are two kleptomaniacs and a real crook.

NOON DAY SERVICES IN THE CITY CHURCHES WEEK BEFORE EASTER

The Protestant churches of this city have united for a series of noon day services during the week immediately preceding Easter. Last year the First and Second Presbyterian churches met together in such a meeting and the results were so gratifying that the Ministerial Association decided by a unanimous vote to appoint a committee to make arrangements for all of the churches to unite in such a service this year. Following is a tentative program which will be reported to the association at its meeting next Monday for action. It will probably be adopted with a few minor changes.

Monday, 12 noon to 12:25, at the First M. E. church; speaker, Rev. W. Holloway.

Tuesday, same hour, Plymouth Congregational church; speaker, Rev. Mr. Ward.

Wednesday, Central Christian; speaker, Rev. Mr. Hazlett.

Thursday, First Presbyterian; speaker, Rev. Mr. Marshall.

Friday, Second Presbyterian. This will be an all-day meeting with the following speakers: 9 to 9:30 a. m., Rev. Mr. Lamp; 9:30 to 10, Rev. Mr. Holler; 10 to 10:30, Rev. Mr. Baker; 10:30 to 11, Rev. Mr. Renshaw; 11 to 11:30, Rev. Mr. Cox; 11:30 to 12, Rev. Mr. Shaw; 12 to 12:30, Rev. Mr. Green; 12:30 to 1, Rev. Mr. Laughlin; 1 to 1:30, Rev. Mr. Root; 1:30 to 2, Rev. Mr. Frey; 2 to 2:30, a leaderless meeting; 2:30 to 3, holy communion, in charge of the association's committee, Messrs Laughlin, Root and Tullis, to be assisted by all the ministers present.

That this series has been arranged by the unanimous desire of the members of the association, representing with probably two exceptions all of the protestant churches of the city, is a splendid commentary on the spirit of unity and good will that prevails on the part of the Christian people of Newark.

This is Guaranteed to Stop Your Cough

Make this Family Supply of Cough Syrup at Home and Save 5c.

This plan makes a pint of better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer an ordinary cough—relieves even whooping cough quickly. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price.

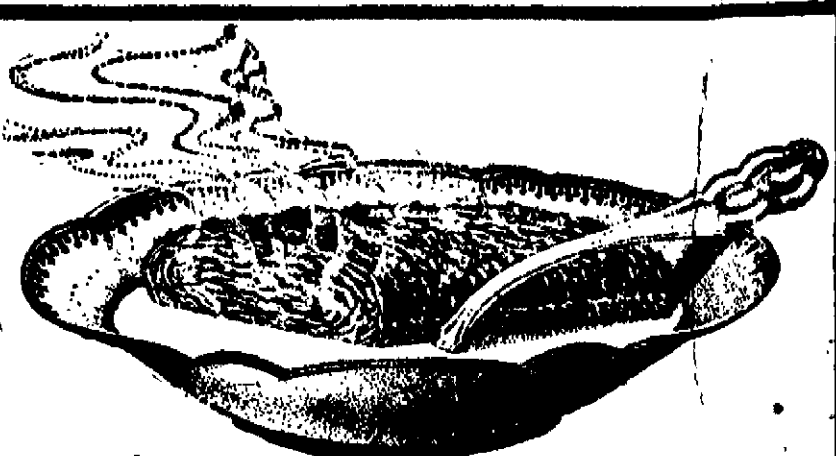

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. Has a good tonic effect, braces up the appetite and is slightly laxative, too, which is helpful. A handy remedy for hoarseness, spasmodic croup, bronchitis, bronchial asthma and whooping cough.

The effect of time on the membranes is well known. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway pine white pine extract, and is rich in quinine and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup remedy has often been imitated, though never successfully. It is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"KETTLE CASE" SETTLED AFTER A LONG FIGHT

After having been in litigation for four years, the celebrated Lima township "kettle case" was disposed of by an opinion from Judge Edwin Mansfield in common pleas court Thursday. The kettle over which the contention arose is valued at $150. Coats in the case have been figured at $80.00, exclusive of attorneys fees.

About five years ago William Haines sold his farm, near Pataakala, to William D. Dyert. When he was removing his property from the farm he started to take the kettle, a large old-fashioned iron affair which had been set in the ground as a receptacle for drinking water for stock. Dyert asserted he had purchased the kettle as a part of the farm equipment, the same as he had the ground and buildings.

On this basis of contention Haines brought suit. The matter was appealed to common pleas court from the court of Magistrate David McIntosh of Lima township.

The suit was bitterly contested by both parties and it dragged along through the court on technicalities, until finally, Thursday, Judge Mansfield decided the matter in favor of Haines, asserting in his opinion that the kettle was not part of the fixed property, but the movable personal property of Haines, to which he was entitled.

Haines may now go to the farm and get his kettle, unless further appeal is taken, which is not likely, it was said, Thursday.

Attorneys Fulton & Fulton and Smythe & Smythe represented Haines while Attorneys Fitzgibbon, Montgomery & Black, and William H. Dyer of Columbus, represented Dyert.

BIG RED TEAM MEETS WOOSTER SATURDAY EVE

Granville, March 12.—Indications are at present that there will be a large crowd in Swasey gymnasium Saturday evening, when Wooster plays here. Every one is anxious to see the Big Red team perform for the final time, after defeating the cream of Ohio teams in the best season ever experienced by a Denison basketball squad. It is a unique and very impressive honor to win the intercollegiate basketball championship of Ohio for two successive years.

The brand of basketball played in Ohio is beyond all reasonable doubt faster than the Western conference play. For example, Ohio State is a member of the Western conference composed of Chicago, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Purdue and all the prominent institutions of the northwest. State finished second in the Western conference race. But in the Ohio conference State was not even a serious contender. Oberlin beat State twice and Ohio Wesleyan has defeated the Scarlet and Gray quintet once, regardless of last evening's game.

State lost one contest in the Western conference, while in the Ohio conference, Wesleyan and Oberlin have taken the measure of the Columbus team three times. This is a big boost for the quality of ball played in Ohio this winter. It is not necessary to go outside of the boundaries of the Buckeye state to see good basketball. Denison is leading Ohio in the indoor game and possesses undoubtedly one of the best teams in the country.

NEWARK OFFICERS IN ZANESVILLE TO OFFER TESTIMONY

SHIPMENT OF DYNAMITE TO "ARMY" LEADER

(Associated Press Telegram)

Sacramento, Cal., March 12.—Detectives and sheriff deputies of Sacramento county are searching today for a camera box containing dynamite said to have been sent from San Francisco to one of the leaders of the "army" of unemployed, camped across the river, which it was said, was to be used in blowing up one of Sacramento's fire engine houses. Information as to the shipment of the dynamite is said to have come from government special agents.

It is reported the feeling of the men has changed but little against what they claim to have been unnecessary and brutal treatment by firemen and deputy sheriffs when they were ejected from the Southern Pacific sand lot Monday.

To add to their resentment is the fact that on the Sacramento side of the river, two fire engines were stationed to be used by the authorities in the event a rush to enter the city by the men on the opposite side. Two lines of hose are visible to the campers.

Negotiations to rid the country of the "army" were resumed today.

"GENERAL" KELLEY INTERVIEWED IN SACRAMENTO JAIL

(Associated Press Telegram)

San Francisco, March 12.—The report on the unemployment situation at Sacramento will be made to the federal industrial relations commission by Harris Weinstock, a member of the commission within a few days. Mr. Weinstock interviewed "General" Kelley in the Sacramento jail Wednesday. His object was to have Kelley explain the assemblage of the men and suggest remedies for the situation.

"Kelley," said Weinstock, "impressed me as a man of considerable mentality. His arguments are well founded—from the view of the unemployed—and he is a man of no mean brain power. I asked him why the army was going to Washington, explaining that the commission's report on the situation would be awaited by congress before action would be taken."

"He answered that the committees of previous years had their reports shelved, and that unless he was there with a force of men to back up this report, it stood a good chance of being similarly treated. As to the remedies, Kelley asked that he be allowed time in which to write them out. When these are received my report will be forwarded to Washington."

"Whether the members of the 'army' are honest, hardworking men out of employment, or petty criminals and toughs I cannot say now. I did not mingle with them."

BOXERS AGREE ON REFEREE; BIG CROWDS LIKELY

Milwaukee, Wis., March 12.—Differences over the selection of a referee, which at one time threatened a postponement of tonight's ten round bout between Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion and Ad. Wolgast, were settled today by the appointment of Harry Stout of this city.

Both fighters announced they were satisfied with Stout. Indications today were that a capacity crowd would see the third encounter between Ritchie and Wolgast. The promoters insisted the receipts would total more than $30,000. Wolgast, will get seventy per cent of the receipts out of which he must pay Ritchie his guarantee of $10,000. The remainder will go to Wolgast.

Ritchie today continued the favorite in the betting, which was mostly 10 to 6.

This morning both fighters were under the stipulated weight of 135 pounds.

SEIGEL STORES ARE ORDERED CLOSED BY THE FEDERAL COURT

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York March 12.—Orders closing the two big New York department stores operated by Henry Siegel and his partners were issued today by the federal court.

What the district attorney described as material for at least fifty indictments, alleging fraud against Henry Siegel and Frank E. Vogel, president and vice president, respectively, of the Siegel stores corporation who were arrested yesterday on three indictments, are now at liberty under $25,000 bail each, was placed in the hands of the grand jury today. Assistant District Attorney Arthur C. Train said that as many indictments as the ends of justice seemed to require would be found against the merchant-bankers.

WOMAN IS DEAD AT AGE OF 103

(Associated Press Telegram)

Xenia, O., March 12.—Mrs. Violet Hatch, a pioneer resident of Jamestown, probably the oldest woman in Ohio, died early today aged 103. She enjoyed good health until a few days before her death. She was able to do the most difficult house work without the aid of glasses. Last summer Mrs. Hatch took many automobile rides and expressed a desire to take a ride in an airship.

Mrs. Hatch came overland by horse back from Virginia when a girl of 18.

When a fellow marries for money there is generally the devil to pay.

SUES COMPANY FOR EJECTION FROM A TRAIN

Suit for $5,000.40, instituted by Contractor Hugh B. DeBord of Newark against the Toledo and Ohio Central Railway company, whose employees are alleged to have ejected him from a train near Junction City, O., was placed on trial before Judge Mansfield in common pleas court Thursday morning to a jury.

DeBord charges that he was enroute from Charleston, W. Va., to Newark two days before Christmas, 1911, and that failure of a T. and O. C. train to connect with a B. and O. train at Junction City threatened to delay his arrival at Newark. He says the T. and O. C. conductor told him to go on to Columbus and then over to Newark, and that he accepted the conductor's advice, but after leaving Junction City the conductor attempted to collect fare from there to Columbus from him, rejecting the ticket stub he held for the trip from Charleston to Newark. He said he was unable to pay the extra fare and was violently ejected from the train at Bremen.

The suit appears to be in the nature of a test of the authority assumed by railroad companies to compel payment of each fare in cases of dispute.

Attorneys Flory & Flory and S. L. James represent DeBord, and Kibler & Kibler for the defendant company.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Look young! Nobody can tell if you use Grandmother's simple recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy. Contest Editor's Query Column

The Advocate will be glad to answer all legitimate questions regarding the contest through the Contest Editor's query column. Questions may be sent by mail or telephone but the answers will be printed in this column so that no contestant will have any advantage over another.

Telephone—The impression on your coupon No. 26 was indistinct. The picture shows the Bulletin board reading "Train to New York—Leave 4:15 p. m."

A. R. N.—The large pictures in the windows of R. F. Collins drugstore, A. L. Norton's bookstore and A. L. Rawlings' music store are the original pen and ink drawings of contest pictures, Nos. 16, 20 and 26.

R. P.—Your question has been answered several times but it was doubtless before you became interested. If the name of the book appears more than once in the catalogue under different authors the contestant will be required to name the book and choose either author.

Mrs. A. C.—We are glad you are so interested.

S. P. J., Columbus—Plenty of time will be given to out of town contestants to obtain coupons and to submit their solutions after the contest closes. The exact time will be announced later but you may be sure that you will be given all the time anyone can reasonably ask.

J. E. C.—If you have mislaid some of the back coupons you may obtain duplicates at this office. The Advocate will have extra coupons for each of the pictures during all the time the contest lasts.

F. B. C.—It is contrary to our rule to send catalogue without first receiving the remittance, 27c. If you will come to this office the price is 25 cents.

C. S.—We have no means of knowing how many entered the contest yesterday or any day for that matter. One may enter the contest without saying anything about it to anybody. The only thing necessary to do is to get the coupons and a catalogue. Many are sending or coming to the office every day for both catalogues and back coupons. More and more people are starting in the contest every day.

T. C. B.—The "probable answers" are interesting many of the contestants but you should not depend upon them. Some of the "probable answers" are not in the Advocate catalogue and it has been announced often that every one of the books pictured is listed in the Advocate Catalogue.

Inquirer—If you will give us your name and street address the paper will be delivered to you every night. You must either send or come for the back coupons and catalogue.

J. C. D.—We shall gladly give you a list of 70 books from which the first 6 pictures were taken. It will take only a little while for you to find answers to the pictures already published.

D. B.—Nobody can tell just when the prizes will be awarded. It depends upon the work to be done after the contest closes.

Telephone—The list of 136 prizes has been printed every day in the Advocate. These prizes are all free to readers of this newspaper. You can start in the contest now. Come to this office or send for the coupons that have been printed to date.

"THE COUNTESS AND THE BURGLAR."
Selig.

Countess.....Gertrude Coghlan
Burglar.....William Walcott
Earl.....Maxwell Baumgardner
Embroiderer.....Walter Roberts

His clever countess foil the burglar with dramatic effectiveness. Home from the ball, she is seated at her dressing table removing her jewels when she discovers in the mirrored reflection of the portieres a slight movement, and looking closely observes a boot tip projecting from the bottom. She continues her preparations for the night coolly, putting all of her jewels in a small casket which she places on a high shelf in the closet. After arranging her hair she lies down on the couch as though overcome with weariness and remains perfectly quiet.

The burglar, judging from the silence that the lady sleeps, begins his activities, finding his way immediately to the closet. As he steps in the alert countess springs forward, shuts the door and snags the lock, then rings for the servants.

When they arrive she is limp from the strain of the situation, but the servants send for the police, who secure the burglar so neatly entangled by the lady.

His delightful actress, who has won distinction for herself, comes from a distinguished family, her father being the late Charles Coghlan, whom she learned the practical application of her art, playing with him for some time.

"The Green-Eyed Monster."
—Bellanca.

This compact and well acted play is pitched in exactly the right key to interest the great mass of photoplay patrons. The characters are types from everyday life. Jealousy brings them to the very edge of a tragedy. The motive recurs constantly throughout the story. The denouement is natural and satisfying.

Jim Miller and his wife and Jim's sister and her husband—the Stones—jointly occupy a flat in a tenement building. Mrs. Stone is jealous of Mrs. Miller because Jim happens to be a clever fellow than her husband. Miller has one failing, a taste for liquor.

The Stones, prompted by their common motive of jealousy, get him drunk. Miller comes home intoxicated and with his wages spent. His wife is unable to pay the rent. Mrs. Stone picks this opportune moment to "run it into" Mrs. Miller by displaying a new hat. Mrs. Miller, jealous, seeks work that will make her independent. She knows how to paint china and secures commissions from a pottery manufacturer. She does the work at home and jealously guards the secret of what she is doing from her sister-in-law. Mrs. Stone's jealousy is aroused by this secrecy. She tries eavesdropping to learn what Mrs. Miller is doing.

The manager of the pottery works falls in love with Mrs. Miller. His strange behavior, whom he has made love to, is jealous of Mrs. Stone. The manager seeks an opportunity to meet Mrs. Miller, and is found with her by her husband.

Then the husband becomes jealous. When he drinks he is a dangerous man. The stenographer calls on Mrs. Stone and tells a spiteful story about Mrs. Miller and the manager, prompted by jealousy. The Stones, still in the grip of the green-eyed monster, believe it all. They inform Miller and at the same time fill him full of whisky.

The manager of the pottery works comes to Miller's flat to apologize to Mrs. Miller for liberties he has attempted. The husband drunk and murderously jealous, breaks in upon them pistol in hand. He fires, but his wife throws up his arm and the bullet goes wide. Then

Any man who is not blinded by partisanship can see from the following results already achieved, that the Warnes tax law was enacted to uncover hidden personal property and that it was not aimed at real estate proprietors.

On a total of 28,832 individual returns of personal property to the State Tax Commission from 69 counties by persons who were upon the duplicate last year there has been placed on the tax lists an increase of $8,403,785 of personal property, mostly monies and credits, that heretofore had been entirely overlooked by elected assessors.

This increase does not include millions of dollars of additions from persons who have been brought out of hiding and placed on the tax duplicate this year for the first time. In Franklin county, for instance, 793 persons who have never seen a tax assessor until this year have reported $314,000 of entirely new property.

The average increase this year on personal property returns is 32 per cent. The per cent of increase in the rural districts is 21-1-2 per cent; in the cities 38 1-2 per cent. This shows they are getting the personal property where the most of it is lodged. The average increase on personal property returns by the elective assessors was 10.9 per cent and that included both additions by persons already on the duplicate and new returns.

Returns thus far received by the State Tax Commission prove that the deputies are getting the "big fellows" and not the people of moderate means who have been honest in the past about their taxes. The average personal property return by individuals in the state at large is $1200. In the cities it is $1227. In the rural districts $1177.

District Assessor Harry Myers, of Montgomery county, reported that in Dayton one man on the duplicate for $11,000 of personal property in 1913 voluntarily increased it to $88,000 this year. Another man in the same city increased from $22,000 to $98,000 and a third person from $16,000 to $90,000. One woman who had not been on the Montgomery county duplicate in 20 years returned $27,000 of personal property and later called the assessor and reported that she wished to increase her return.

These straws show the way the wind blows.

All these increases mean less taxes from those who have made honest returns in the past.

Whenever the standpat gang that is ruling the Republican party in Ohio gets together the members speak of the wonderful accomplishments of the G. O. P. in the last decade. Here is what U. S. Senator La Follette says of that record. "Promised tariff revision was juggled for 19 years. Combinations, trusts, monopolies, holding companies, interlocking directories, the control of credit and capital—the monster evils with which we are now grappling—came into being and grew into lusty power, almost wholly within the period of the two last Republican administrations and while Republican leadership was dominant in both branches."

United States Senator La Follette, the famous progressive Republican, has the following get-together note in his magazine this week: "The Republican party had fought every battle for human rights waged on this continent for 40 years. But from Lincoln, Sherman and equal rights to Roosevelt, Aldrich and industrial monopoly was a steep descent."

"The Desert Tribesman."
—Thankhouse.

Ben Ibrahim, an Arab tribesman, is summoned before the caliph for an infraction of the law. At the instigation of the vizier he is sentenced to severe punishment, but, word coming to the caliph as Ben Ibrahim is being taken away that a son has been born to him, the caliph in honor of his son gives the tribesman a full pardon. On the spot Ben Ibrahim swears that if ever the caliph's son is in trouble he, Ben Ibrahim, will come to his relief. A few days later the caliph dies and the vizier seizes his throne. The mother of the rightful heir sends the child by a trusted emissary to Ben Ibrahim's camp. There the boy is brought up. When he comes of age he is told the secret of his birth. The young man returns to the capital and leads a rebellion against the usurper. A battle in the caliph's palace follows. The tide is finally turned in favor of the rightful heir by the timely arrival of Ben Ibrahim and his tribesmen.

"Presto Willie—Magician."
—Bessanay.

Willie had a awful dream, and all because of the box of magic tricks his father gave him. Willie had been going over the game all afternoon, and when, tired out, he snuggled down into a cozy chair, he was interrupted almost immediately by a mustached gentleman who gave him a small wand with its magic countersign. Willie flew forth with his new possession, amazing his doting parents by flourishing it over their breakfast eggs, which instantly evolved into a spotty hen and rooster strutting across the white tablecloth. Willie paused next in a neat market, ordering a large bunch of "wienies," which were left on the amazed market man's hands in the shape of a curly little dog. The "chugman" had his laundry turned into a rat, and "strewed" his suit into a plant, while Willie wandered on toward the museum. Here when he "prestod" an ape into activity his luck changed and he became the losing leader in a chase in which all of his victims joined enthusiastically, until his mother finally stopped it by shaking him awake from his nightmare.

A Story of Two Factories.

"Two Ohio towns of 5,000 population, laboring under the mistaken impression that the prosperity of a country town is measured by the number of factories within its corporate limit, rather than by the progressiveness and resultant prosperity of the farmers nearby, started a campaign for factories a few years ago. One of them secured a foundry, giving the company considerable inducement to locate. In the way of a free site and other privileges. We Have Faith In This Stomach Remedy

A woman customer said to us the other day, "Say, you ought to tell everyone in town about Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. I would myself if I could." That set us to thinking. So many people have used them and have enthusiastically sounded their praises both to us and their friends, that we had an idea you all knew about them. But, in the chance that some of you who suffer from indigestion, heartburn, dyspepsia, or some other stomach complaint, don't know about them—we are writing this.

They contain Bismuth and Pepsin, two of the greatest digestive aids known to medical science. They soothe and comfort the stomach, promote the secretion of gastric juice, help to quickly digest the food and convert it into rich, red blood, and improve the action of the bowels, we believe them to be the best remedy made for indigestion and dyspepsia. We certainly wouldn't offer them to you entirely at our risk, unless we felt sure they would do you a lot of good. If Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets do not relieve your indigestion, check the heartburn, and make it possible for you to eat what you like whenever you like, come back and get your money.

Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only at our store. Three sizes, 25c, 50c, and $1.00. Frank D. Hall, 10 North Side Square, Newark, O.

Madame Isbell's Beauty Lesson

LESSON IV—PART III

WRINKLES AND FACIAL MASSAGE.

Massage Movements (Continued).

No. 4. Moistened the last three fingers of both hands with cream and place the second finger in the hollow at the base of the nose; draw it rather vigorously towards the ears, letting the other fingers follow. Repeat ten times, the object being to remove the lines from the nose to the corners of the mouth.

No. 5. For this movement moisten all the fingers with cream; place the first and second fingers of each hand, one above and one below the ears, separate and draw the hands towards the ears, letting the other fingers follow on the neck.

No. 6. This last movement is to correct a tendency towards sagging cheeks and to strengthen the muscles in the lower part of the face. Commence by putting a liberal amount of cream on the fingers of the right hand, place them on the lower part of the left cheek, holding the hand with the wrist at a level with the forehead. Treat the face to a series of little backward movements, running the fingers from the jawbone up to the left temple. Do this six to eight times and repeat with the left hand on the right side of the face.

The muscles of the face have now been treated. The question of the neck and hollows and lines about the ears will take up a future lesson. Although exercise No. 3 corrects a tendency towards a double chin, while it erases lines from the neck, the facial treatment remove surplus cream with a soft cloth, bathe the face with very cold water or with an astringent lotion and once a week an ice treatment may be given.

Ice Treatment.

Wrap a small piece of ice in soft, clean linen and rub it all over the face, beginning with the neck and moving upwards towards the temples. Do this with a rotary movement, but keep the general tendency of all the movements upwards.

Expression.

The question of expression has a great deal to do with the formation of wrinkles and I beg my pupils to watch carefully for any faults of frowning and drooping the face. Do this with a rotary movement, but keep the general tendency of all the movements upwards.

Note: Movements 1, 2 and 3 of these exercises were printed in the last article and should be repeated and read for full information on the subject.

In the next lesson Madame Isbell will take up the question of the eyes, how to care for them in childhood and maturity and how to preserve and improve their beauty. Madame Isbell will be glad to answer any question sent to her in care of the Advocate and such will be treated confidentially.

When shoes are the question, Walk-Over is the answer.

Purple Hair and Goggles to Match Seen in Paris.

Paris, home of fashion, has put over another, which may or may not be copied in London and New York. Following the adoption of colored wigs by many women of society and their imitators comes the use of goggles to match. Here is a Parisian lady with purple hair and goggles of the same hue.

She wears the latest spring fashion in gowns also, but when she went along the streets of the city it was not her gown that attracted attention. The purple wig and glasses won her attention along her route. A fashion expert said that the fashion might be adopted in a modified form in the United States. It was possible that those women who wore brown wigs might use brown goggles. That is, the more sober colors in wigs and glasses might become common in social affairs.

LITTLE DISCUSSIONS OF LOVE AND MARRIAGE

BY BARBARA BOYD

One Way To Make a Husband Happy.

"I heard a woman say rather an odd thing the other day," remarked the Young Married Woman.

"What was it?" asked the Clubwoman.

"She said that when a person is dead you are happier thinking of the things you have done for him, than of what he did for you, and—"

"That's true enough," interrupted the Clubwoman. "It certainly is a solace, when a dear one passes on, to think of the things we have done to make his life easy or comfortable. And one of the keenest stings of death is in thinking what we might have done and didn't."

"That's exactly it," said the Young Married Woman, a bit plaintively. "And so I wondered if a good way to make one's husband happy wouldn't be to let him do all he can for one."

"But the trouble is," laughed the Clubwoman, "that he wouldn't reap his happiness until his wife died. You are not thinking of dying, are you?"

"No," said the Young Married Woman. "But I would like to find some way to make my husband happier. He doesn't seem just as bubbling over with joy as he ought to be."

"If he isn't doing any complaining about bills, or the cooking, or his socks not being darned, don't you worry," advised the Clubwoman. "Men are not given to going around singing Hallelujah choruses, though I suppose Epithelamiums would be more appropriate, about their marital happiness. But if things aren't going to suit them, they are not slow in speaking about it. And don't overdo the plan of making them wait on you. A husband does enjoy doing certain things for his wife, but it is the things he thinks of himself, or thinks he thinks of. But as soon as it becomes a matter of your exacting them, or turning him into a beast of burden to serve you, he might be glad to have the time come when he could be happy by thinking of what he had done for you. It might give him a double pleasure—thinking that he had done them, and thinking that he didn't have them any more to do. Don't work this plan too far. But just go on doing so many things to make him comfortable, and to give him a cheery home, that out of sheer delight in it and in you, he'll do a thousand and one things in return to make you happy. You do your part and do it rejoicingly, as for him, and let him know it is for him; and he'll catch the spirit of gladness and devotion, and do his part for you. That's better than dying to make him happy. He might console himself, you know, with 'Number Two,' and forget to think about the things he had done for you."

"Horror!" said the Young Married Woman, rising to go. "I think I'll stay right on the job of making him happy now."

Card of Thanks.

To my many friends and neighbors I desire to express my gratitude and heartfelt thanks for the many kindnesses and sympathy shown me in my recent sorrow and bereavement in the loss of my beloved husband, Richard Courson. I especially thank Elder Dove for his words of consolation, the choir for their beautiful songs, the pallbearers, the donors of the beautiful floral offerings, Bazler & Bradley, undertakers, for the excellent and efficient manner in which they conducted the funeral.

(Associated Press Telegram)
 Boston, March 12.—Rear Admiral Bowles, president of the Fore River Shipbuilding company, today denied that he had employed Clarence W. DeKnight to work for toll exemptions for American coastwise ships in the Panama Canal act, as testified by DeKnight before the Senate lobby committee at Washington.

DeKnight, an employee of the Panama Canal Act which has to do with the jurisdiction of the interstate commerce commission over the canal shipping, the Admiral said. "The provision concerning tolls is Section 5 of the act, and with this I had nothing to do."

Confirmation of liberal sales to the east and a scarcity of rural offerings helped to develop strength in corn. A few small offerings were followed by a general rise to above last night's level. Oats sagged owing to absence of demand. There was but little pressure to sell.

New Plan Being Indorsed As Announced By Directors Of Newark Board of Trade

The new plan of the Newark Board of Trade has been announced. What do you think of it? Does it meet with your approval? HAVE YOU CAREFULLY CONSIDERED AND GIVEN ATTENTION TO THE MAIN OBJECT? IS THERE A MAN WHO DOES NOT ACQUIESCE, AT LEAST IN THIS?

It is not even considered that such could be the case. But it is realized at the same time that some of the details may not be understood thoroughly by one reading, and it is the intention to explain them more fully from time to time. This discussion is right and proper, and is welcomed by the Board, as it is confidently believed, that it can lead to but one final conclusion, which will be a hearty approval of the methods, as the best that could be adopted for the attainment of the industrial and commercial development of the city as a whole, which is the sole purpose.

The resolution adopted by the Board of Trade creating a factory fund, made provision for its collection, its use and the manner it was to be safe guarded. It is distinct, separate and can be used for no other purpose whatever than to aid in securing new industries for Newark. The current expenses of the Board are paid out of the membership dues.

To assure this beyond cavil, a trusteeship was formed, and five well known men will act in this capacity. They are men who stand high in every sphere of the city's activity. These men are A. H. Heisey, E. C. Wright, E. T. Rugg, W. A. Robbins and A. G. Wyeth.

These trustees are bound by a written contract with the Board of

Pennsylvania Man Thankful

Mr. C. E. Brooks, Marshall, Mich.
Dear Sir:—
Perhaps it will interest you to know that I have been ruptured six years and have always had trouble with it till I got your Appliance. It is very easy to wear, fits neat and snug, and is not in the way at any time, day or night. In fact, at times I did not know I had it on; it just adapted itself to the shape of the body and seemed to be a part of the body, as it clung to the spot, no matter what position I was in.

It would be a veritable God-send to the unfortunate who suffer from rupture if all could procure the Brooks Rupture Appliance and wear it. They would certainly never regret it.

My rupture is now all healed up and nothing ever did it but your Appliance. Whenever the opportunity presents itself I will say a good word for your Appliance, and also the honorable way in which you deal with ruptured people. It is a pleasure to recommend a good thing among your friends or strangers. I am,

Yours very sincerely,
JAMES A. BRITTON,
80 Spring St., Bethlehem, Pa.

Dear Sir:—
I am glad to tell you that I am now sound and well and can plough or do any heavy work. I can say your Appliance has effected a permanent cure. Before getting your Appliance I was in a terrible condition and had given up all hope of ever being any better. I hadn't been for your Appliance I would never have been cured. I am sixty-eight years old

The above is C. E. Brooks, inventor of the Appliance, who cured himself and who is now giving others the benefit of his experience. If ruptured, write him today, at Marshall, Mich.

Remember

I send my Appliance on trial to prove what I say is true. You are to be the judge. Fill out free coupon below and mail today.

Yours sincerely,

Others Failed But the Appliance Cured

Mr. C. E. Brooks, Marshall, Mich.
Dear Sir:—
Your Appliance did all you claim for the little boy and more, for it cured him sound and well. We let him wear it for about a year in all, although it cured him 3 months after he had begun to wear it. We had tried several other remedies and got no relief, and I shall certainly recommend it to friends, for we surely owe it to you. Yours respectfully,
WM. PATTERSON,
No. 717 S. Main St., Akron, O.

Ten Reasons Why You Should Send For Brooks Rupture Appliance

1. It is absolutely the only Appliance of the kind on the market today, and in it are embodied the principles that inventors have sought after for years.
2. The Appliance for retaining the rupture cannot be thrown out of position.
3. Being an air cushion of soft rubber it clings closely to the body, yet never blisters or causes irritation.
4. Unlike the ordinary so-called pads used in other trusses, it is not cumbersome or ungainly.
5. It is small, soft and pliable, and positively cannot be detected through the clothing.
6. The soft, pliable bands holding the Appliance do not give one the unpleasant sensation of wearing a harness.
7. There is nothing about it to get foul, and when it becomes soiled it can be washed without injuring it in the least.
8. There are no metal springs in the Appliance to torture one by cutting and bruising the flesh.
9. All of the material of which the Appliances are made is of the very best that money can buy, making it a durable and safe Appliance to wear.
10. My reputation for honesty and fair dealing is so thoroughly established by an experience of over thirty years of dealing with the public, and my prices are so reasonable, my terms so fair, that there certainly should be no hesitancy in sending free coupon today.

Child Cured in Four Months

21 Jackson St., Dubuque, Iowa.
Mr. C. E. Brooks, Marshall, Mich.
Dear Sir:—
The baby's rupture is altogether cured, thanks to your Appliance, and we are so thankful to you. If we could only have known of it sooner, our little boy would not have had to suffer near as much as he did. He wore your brace a little over four months. Yours very truly,
ANDREW EGENBERGER.

Second Presbyterian Church Will Have New Pipe Organ Which Is Most Modern Made

Newark has in the last few years experienced an era of church building, and several handsome new edifices have been erected, which in every way conform to the very latest and most approved ideas of church architecture. Not alone is this true of the exterior but the interior equipment is in corresponding accord with advanced models.

A church in this day and age must have a pipe organ, adequate in design and construction to the demands made for the very best church music.

The taste of the average church goer, has undergone a gradual but none the less effectual evolution in this respect, from almost primitive appreciation of the most simple compositions, to a real conception of the classic and grand. There is no higher field of musical endeavor than the sacred, which runs the gamut of human sensibilities and emotions. The most lofty genius of the world's greatest composers has found expression in this class of music, and the church is the best and most natural place to look for and find its expression. The religion of the people takes firmer hold upon their hearts and intellects as they hear the great hymns of devout men, or the soul-stirring psalms of inspired writers set to characteristic music of the immortal masters of composition.

This is a sign that the religion of Christ is becoming vivified, humanized and adapted to the needs of the souls of men, who thus are enabled to find the full and true meaning of God's intention toward them.

The rendition of any musical work that deserves a place in choir effort, depends to a great extent for an effectual rendition, upon the organist and the instrument. These again are interdependent. The best organist cannot get the proper effects on a poor organ, and the reverse is equally true. Whether solo, full choir or congregational vocalization, the organ takes a place only secondary, yet complementary and indispensable.

Newark has several excellent church organs, built recently and along methods of the most improved modern construction and in less than two weeks the newest addition will be completed at the Second Presbyterian church, by Hook & Hastings, the well known Boston manufacturers, who first installed the organ 32 years ago.

This instrument was at the time the best in the market, with the latest improvements in action, stops and many accessories. It was dedicated by George Whiting, then of Cincinnati, now of Boston, who was and is a noted performer. After installation, Professor Morton F. Mason of Natick, Mass., a young musician of great promise, became the organist, and remained such for many years. He was married in Newark to Miss Mary Wallace, daughter of Hugh Wallace, and after some years on account of his health with his family moved to California, where he is now located in Pasadena, having charge of a large $35,000 organ, the biggest in that city.

When he left Newark his pupil, the lamented Charles W. Green immediately became organist, continuing for a number of years until he went to Chicago where he had a large class on piano and organ, but it was only a short time until death claimed one of the most brilliant, talented and promising musicians ever in Newark.

After Mr. Green left the city Miss

Florence M. King took the organ and is still the valued organist and choir director of the church. Her musical equipment is of the highest order temperamentally and her ability as an executant is well known and appreciated in Newark, as she has given a number of recitals, cantatas and oratorios. The rebuilding of the Second church organ is under her immediate supervision and according to her own ideas of what a church organ should be, and it is a certainty that every detail will be arranged and when finished the church will be the possessor of an instrument that could not be duplicated for $7500, and will be second to none.

Thus for 32 years there has not been an interregnum in the position of organist in this church.

The old organ, as has been said, was the best obtainable at that time, having the mechanical tracker action. It has been in a position far above any basement, so that the mechanism has not been deleteriously affected by dampness, or extremes in temperature so that A. L. Brown, the Hook & Hastings expert sent here from Boston to install the new work, said that it was in better condition than any old instrument he had ever seen.

But any mechanical action will wear out, and that is what has occurred, and the tracker system from key board to pipes, will be superseded by the new tubular pneumatic action, complete in every detail, in swell, great and pedal organs.

By this system the compressed air is allowed into the speaking pipes through valves which are opened by pressing down the keys.

Between the key and the valve opening there is nothing but the tube containing the compressed air, no mechanical tracker or other contrivance to get out of order, break or crack. This action is entirely new and of course is the principal expense.

By the pneumatic system also the key touch is like that of a piano, and does not become harder as stops are pulled. In fact it is the same with one stop out as it is when the full organ is used and every stop pulled.

This action is instantaneous in an organ is this size, which gives the same effect as an electrical system with the added advantage that it is not as liable to get easily out of order.

The "organs" are three in number, the swell, great and pedal. To be plainer, the upper bank of keys is the swell organ, the lower the great organ, and beneath is located the pedal organ, played with the feet.

The manual compass in great and swell organ, in the case in question, is 48 notes and 27 notes in the pedal organ. These "organs" can be combined, any one with the other, or others, played alone, or all together. Formerly these combinations were made, and couplers put on by pressing foot pedals or pulling stops, but in the new instrument this is all done by small tilting pedals just above the keyboard, manipulated by a finger pressure, or by pistons just below that are easily pushed by the finger.

The combinations that can be secured will be the 16-foot swell to great, 8-foot swell to great, 4-foot swell to great, 8-foot great to pedal, 8-foot swell to pedal, giving a great variety.

Two new stops have been added to the swell the "Vox Humana," (human voice) an 8-foot pipe, and the "Vox Celeste," (celestial voice), a

Soda Relieves Indigestion or Acid Stomach

Few stomach sufferers know that indigestion, Sourness and Gases are not caused by a lack of digestive juices, but result always from acidity, meaning there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach, which retards digestion and promotes food fermentation. Everything eaten sours in the stomach like garbage sours in a can, forming acrid fluids and gases which inflame the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we get a heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we belch gas and eructate food or have heartburn, water-brash, bloating and nausea.

A well-known authority states that a 10 grain Sodagen tablet taken anytime, followed by a tumbler of water instantly neutralizes these stomach acids; stops fermentation, absorbs the gases and sweetens the entire digestive tract. He says any pharmacist can supply a package of 10 grain Sodagen tablets as they are constantly prescribed for stomach acidity because of their harmlessness to the digestive organs, being composed of Soda, Calcium Carbonate and Magnesia U. S. P.

A 4-foot. A "Gamba," has been added to the great, and a "Cello" to the pedal organs. The whole number of stops is forty-six.

One of the new accessories is a crescendo which enables one to use the organ from the softest pianissimo gradually increasing to the fullest organ, by pulling one stop. The dynamic power can be sustained at any point, or a diminuendo produced, an indication showing the organist just the power he is using.

The wind is furnished through a large pipe connected with an electric motor on the first floor so that the details are in every way complete.

Arrangements are being made to secure Clarence Eddy of Chicago, the "Dean of American Organists," to dedicate the organ on March 24, but this date has not yet been finally decided upon.

ELBEN PREFERS MINERS JOB TO WORKHOUSE

Pleading earnestly for clemency and agreeing to take a job either at a local factory or in a coal mine at Steubenville, Granny Elben expressed his horror of the Columbus workhouse where he has just completed a sentence of about six weeks.

Police court attaches and newspaper men never heard Elben plead so earnestly before and all were surprised at his apparent sincerity. He told the mayor that he had been vaccinated while at the "works" and that he "took" with a vengeance and that he had no desire to go back.

In passing sentence on Elben, the mayor assessed a fine of $25 and costs. He told "Granny" that he did not approve of the proposition to take a job in Newark.

"You need to get away from your associates here," the mayor told him. "If you'll take a job offered you at Steubenville, this sentence will be suspended."

"Granny" agreed but succeeded in getting several concessions from the court. He got permission to go home, take a bath and change to clean clothes, which was readily given, and also got permission to return to Newark occasionally to visit his aged father.

Others in the place declared that the woman was apparently in better spirits than usual Wednesday night when she retired. With several others she played cards until 11 o'clock.

Those in the place denied that the woman had been drinking, declaring that her physician had forbidden the use of intoxicants on account of heart trouble.

She has been in Newark about three months, though she was here several years ago. Papers found in her room indicated that she had been in Charleston, W. Va., Columbus, Chicago and other cities.

According to information secured by the coroner, a mother lives in Chicago and her son is in Cleveland where he holds a position as a chauffeur.

The body will be removed to the Criss Brothers morgue late Thursday, where Coroner Wiyarsch and Deputy Coroner Jackson will probably hold a post-mortem examination. Until this is done it will not be known positively what caused the woman's death.

No, Maude, dear there is no real connection between the finger of scorn and the manure girl.

INSPIRING MUSIC EACH EVENING AT CENTRAL CHURCH

The meeting at the Central church of Christ last evening was one of the most inspiring yet held. Mr. Sturgis is truly a great leader of song. His solo last evening, entitled "Sing the Old Song to Me," brought to a great many, very tender memories of former days. Mr. Lowe conducts the Bible reading each evening, which consists of quotations from the audience. He usually comments briefly on such quotations, thus bringing out a great many beautiful and helpful thoughts. The sermon last night on the subject, "Are All Saved Alike?" was unique and helpful. His answer to the question propounded was to the effect that all are most certainly saved alike in that all must positively obey the same gospel in the same way; but all are not saved alike in that the gospel of Christ makes its appeal differently to different types of mind and temperament. He made use of the figure of the New Jerusalem, the four square city, with three gates on each side, saying that the gates on the east mean that there is an appeal suited to the young; that the gates on the south mean that there is an approach for those of warm, emotional temperament; the gates on the north speak of a welcome for those of cold, logical turn of mind; while the gates on the west are for the ones whose life-raft is nearly gone. The sermon was a strong appeal to all classes to accept Christ as Saviour, with the assurance that all would certainly find peace and strength. The subject of the sermon this evening will be "Can a Man Sow and Not Reap?" Mr. Sturgis will sing a solo entitled, "The Judgment." There will be a meeting for men next Sunday afternoon at which time Mr. Lowe will speak. This will be instead of the regular meeting of the Christian Men's Union and every man in the city and vicinity is invited.

The consideration is not made public. This is one of the most desirable residence properties in Newark. Mr. Ed Doe and family now live at 66 Hoffman avenue, Columbus.

MAYOR ORDERS MAN TO CHURCH INSTEAD OF JAIL

Mayor Bigbee is trying various methods in an effort to reduce the number of police court cases but his latest innovation is sentencing a man to attend church services. John Schraner, arrested by Officer Hurlbaugh Wednesday, was given a suspended fine of $5 and costs on condition that he attend church service tonight. He is to report at headquarters and be accompanied by an officer to the church.

"I am hoping that Schraner will hear something that will appeal to his better nature and start him on the right path," said Mayor Bigbee in commenting on his action.

HON. JOHN L. ZIMMERMAN TO ADDRESS BROTHERHOODS OF THE LUTHERAN CHURCH

EASY WAY TO GET RID OF PIMPLES

Resinol Really Does What Cosmetics Are Supposed To Do.

It is so easy to get rid of pimples and blackheads with Resinol, and it costs so little, too, that anyone whose face is disfigured by these pests is foolish to keep on with useless creams, washes or complicated "beauty treatments." Here's the way to do it:

Bathe your face for several minutes with Resinol Soap and hot water, then apply a little Resinol Ointment very gently. Let this sit on ten minutes, and wash off with Resinol Soap and more hot water, finishing with a dash of cold water to close the pores. Do this every morning and evening, and you will be surprised to see how quickly the itching, annoying pimples, blackheads, sores and eruptions disappear, leaving the complexion clear and velvety.

Resinol stops itching instantly and speedsily heals eczema, and other skin humors, dandruff, sores, burns and pikes. Sold by every druggist, Resinol Ointment, 50 cts. and $1.00. Resinol Soap, 25 cts. For generous free trial, write Dept. 4-M, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

PLANNED TRIP TO EUROPE; NOW HELD FOR CRIME

The arrest of Abramo Starzo Wednesday night on a charge of stealing a steamship ticket from John Teranio, Italian, living at 65 Vine street, proved to be a sad event for Teranio, because Starzo was sore. He told the officers that Teranio was wanted in Columbus on a charge of shooting Tony Antolini on May 27, 1912. As a result of this information, which was verified by Captain Swank who called Columbus police headquarters, Teranio was placed under arrest, taken to Columbus by Officer Van Geason and his trip to Sunny Italy will be delayed until he makes satisfactory restitution for reckless use of fire arms.

Captain Swank and Officers Stewart and Sunkie arrested Starzo during the night on an affidavit filed before Magistrate D. M. Jones. It was after the prisoner was lodged at the city prison that he told of the crime committed by the man who had caused his arrest. Teranio was the next man in the police dragnet. In the magistrate's court, Starzo gave bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance for trial Friday morning at 9 o'clock. The ticket was valued at $150.

RESOLUTIONS.
Newark, O., March 11, 1914.
The hearts of the members of Newark Home No. 34 have been saddened by the death angel entering our midst and removing from our ranks our beloved Brother Roswell Rugg, who answered his heavenly Father's last call March 3, 1914.

Whereas, Our heavenly Father has deemed it best to call unto Himself this brother from our midst and while he will be sorely missed from our ranks, may our loss be His gain and may the bereaved wife and daughter look unto our heavenly Father who does all things well and from whence cometh our help, comfort and strength during our time of sorest need. Should they in the future need kind and cheerful words or help at any time, may they find us ready and willing to carry out the H. G. A. motto and assist them at any and all times.

Be it Resolved, That these resolutions be placed upon the minutes of the Home and a copy sent the bereaved family, Supreme Home, and published in both the local papers. Resolution Committee Home Guards of America, Newark Home No. 34. 12-11

AND HE DID

5 Women Avoid Operations

For years we have been stating in the newspapers of the country that a great many women have escaped serious operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is true.

We are permitted to publish in this announcement extracts from the letters of five women. All have been recently received unsolicited. Could any evidence be more convincing?

1. HODGDON, ME.—"I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached and I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman."—MRS. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Me.

2. CHARLOTTE, N. C.—"I was in bad health for two years, with pains in both sides and was very nervous. I had a growth which the doctor said was a tumor, and I never would get well unless I had an operation. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I gladly say that I am now enjoying fine health."—MRS. ROSA SIMS, 16 Winona St., Charlotte, N. C.

3. HANOVER, PA.—"The doctor advised a severe operation, but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it."—MRS. ADA WILT, 196 Stock St., Hanover, Pa.

4. DECATUR, ILL.—"I was sick in bed and three of the best physicians said I would have to be taken to the hospital for an operation as I had something growing in my left side. I refused to submit to the operation and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and it worked a miracle in my case, and I tell other women what it has done for me."—MRS. LAURA A. GRISWOLD, 2300 Blk. East William Street, Decatur, Ill.

5. CLEVELAND, OHIO.—"I was very irregular and for several years my side pained me so that I expected to have to undergo an operation. Doctors said they knew of nothing that would help me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I became regular and free from pain. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."—MRS. C. H. GIERRETH, 7305 Madison Av., Cleveland, O.

Bundhar Wilton Rugs and Carpets are made to fill the demand for handsome, long-wearing floor coverings at a moderate price.

It took years of patient endeavor to produce a carpet with a pile long enough to be soft and pleasant under foot, yet not so long that it would mat down through wear or pressure.

It required many experiments to find the dyes that would give the rich colorings in Bundhar Wilton Rugs and Carpets, and yet would retain their lustre and beauty until the end.

It keeps a corps of skilled designers busy producing the rare Oriental and beautiful Bundhar patterns; blending and contrasting the colors as only artists know how.

But the result is that Bundhar Wilton Carpets and Rugs offer you a better value than any other floor covering at the same price.

There are colors and patterns to suit every taste, and there's a size to fit any room, no matter what its shape or proportion.

BIG GAINS ARE BEING MADE BY THE ASSESSORS

I wish to call the attention of the taxpayers of Newark and Licking county to some of the marvelous results of the present assessment. The assessors have been at work but a few days, but returns show great and uniform gains. Two weeks' work by six deputy assessors in the city of Newark show a net gain over the returns of the same individuals in 1913 of $100,000 without increasing the valuation of real estate a penny. The good citizens of this city and county were never appealed to in vain; they not only know that an increasing tax rate is a withering blight to the prosperity of a city, but worse than all, it is an insidious enemy to public morals of a city; for no man in the wealthiest nation of the world ought to be compelled to choose between confiscation of property by reason of an increasing tax rate on the one hand, and evasion and perjury on the other, for upon the maintenance of the sanctity of the oath in a great measure, depend our liberties; for if it has no restraining influence in establishing truth in one instance where property is an issue, might it not also fail to establish truth and justice where life and bribery are issues?

The ideals of men, however, were never higher than today, and the safety of our people lies in their capacity, at all times, to remedy a great wrong. We are getting the intangible personal property on the tax duplicate, thus assuring a lower tax rate and a real boost for Newark; and to safeguard the rights of property, the people through the initiative and referendum features of the constitution, may, if they feel that the limited rate to which they are entitled, is in danger by reason of increased public expenditures, place such limited rate in the constitution of Ohio beyond even the reach of the legislature; for there can be no doubt but that public officials must keep faith with the people.

W. H. ANDERSON,
District Assessor.

PHOTO DRAMA OF CREATION DRAWS CROWDS

"I wouldn't miss this if they charged one dollar a seat," said one man as he left the Auditorium after seeing Part 4 of the Photo Drama of Creation which is being presented daily at 3 and 8 p. m. in the High School Auditorium. Large, intelligent and very attentive audiences are witnessing each exhibition of the Drama which is presented in four part of about two hours each. The Bible story is told in an attractive and convincing manner by means of moving pictures, stereopticon slides and lecture.

In part one the Abydos tablet is shown. This tablet was preserved by Seti I, who was probably the Pharaoh who made Joseph his prime minister.

He sank a shaft sixty feet deep through solid granite and at that level his masons cut out the stone staircase on which the Abydos Tablet is portrayed. The object of presenting a panoramic stereopticon view of this tablet is to show that this, acknowledged the best of Egyptian religion, is fully corroborative of the Genesis account as contained in the Bible.

Part Three of the Drama, which is being shown this afternoon, begins with Daniel and his experiences, thence up to Jesus' time. His birth, baptism, anointing, miracles, ministry, trial and crucifixion.

Part Four, which will be on this evening at 8 o'clock, shows the experiences of the Apostles and the early church; persecutions by Nero, and in moving pictures sets forth the remarkable experience of Marcellus with the Lion in the Arena. Church history down to the present time is then traced. Then follow pictures showing the Scriptural prophecies down a thousand years in the future.

Altogether the Photo Drama is a most meritorious production, and must be seen to be fully appreciated. One minister upon leaving the hall where the drama is shown, after having seen Parts One and Two said: "I have learned more about the Bible in these four hours than I learned in a Theological seminary in four years."

The Photo Drama is being presented by the International Bible Students Association. Everything is free and no collections are taken.

There will be no exhibition of the drama tomorrow, but it will be resumed again on Saturday at 3 p. m. and again Saturday evening.

Tonight will be the last opportunity for Newark people to see Part Four. It was announced this afternoon that children unaccompanied by their elders would not be admitted this evening.

SURE WAY TO REGAIN ROBUST BLOOM OF YOUTH

A smooth, velvety-soft skin, with a delicate peach-like bloom, is one of the Creator's most exquisite works. When the first blush of youth is over, this beautiful tint and satiny lustre are rarely seen. How to preserve them—that's the question. Famous beauty experts abroad have known that ordinary melted wax works wonders in this direction. It actually gives a surface to the skin, restoring that marvelous glowing color and softness in a remarkable manner. An ounce of this wax, procurable at any drug store, will convert faded, freckled, wornout or discolored complexion into one of captivating loveliness in less than two weeks. No special skill is necessary in applying the wax; it being smeared on at night with cold cream and washed off in the morning.

To remove wrinkles, or delay their formation, a face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered salolite in 3 pe. witch hazel will be found wonderfully efficacious. This tones up relaxed skin, causing it to remain firm and smooth. Advertisement.
